MISCELLANEOUS.

How's

Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation,

knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy liver. When the liver is torpid the bowels are sluggish and constipated,

the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache

ensues; a feeling of lassitude and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged.

Simmons Liver

Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them

a healthy liver than any agency known on earth.

It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

An general family remedy for dyspepsia, torpid liver, constipation, etc., it hardly ever uses anything else, and have never been disappointed. It is the only remedy that is a perfect cure for all diseases of the stomach and bowels.

With a feeble appetite and imperfect digestion, it is impossible for the body to secure the requisite amount of nourishment. Ayer's Sarsaparilla not only stimulates the desire for food, but aids the assimilative organs in the formation of good blood and sound tissue. *
The Swiss residents of Sonoma are making great preparations for their celebration on the 22d of September. The affair promises to bring together one of the largest gatherings ever congregated in this place. An oration in English will be delivered by R. A. Poppo while V. Papina will address his countrymen in Italian. *
Sonoma Valley was represented by four entries in the running races of the Golden Gate Fair Association at San Francisco on Friday of last week, to wit: Laurine, Fannie F., Marigold and Glen Ellen. The animals were all bred in this valley and are owned by J. B. Chase. Laurine took second money with eight votes to contend against.

Right of Way Secured.

The S. F. and N. P. Railway Company (the Donahue system) has secured all the right of way for their broad gauge road, which is to run from Sears' Point to this place and thence on to Glen Ellen. The narrow gauge road bed will be abandoned from a point 2400 feet south of McGill's station to Shellville, a distance of several miles. The new road bed will follow the lines of the reclamation company through the lands of Bihler, Poppe and Kennedy and crosses Sonoma Creek near the county bridge and thence on to Shellville where it will again connect with the old road bed, which will be broadened out. The right of way from Wm. Bihler was secured last week by Mr. Henry Weyl of this place. It is the intention of the Donahue people to transfer the force of graders from the Sebastopol branch to the Sonoma Valley branch as soon as the former road bed is graded. This will be within a week or ten days. The work of broadening out the narrow gauge road bed will then be commenced and pushed forward with vigor. When this work is completed and the new transfer boat which is being constructed for the Donahue people is finished freight from Sonoma Valley towns can be shipped to San Francisco without breaking bulk.

Joe Bowers.

Our Glen Ellen correspondent informs us that a reward is out for the apprehension of Joe Bowers for writing up in rhyme the leading citizens of that burg in last week's issue of the INDEX-TRIBUNE. We sincerely trust that Joe will make good his escape. Poor fellow, his lot has already been a hard one, as many an old Californian well knows. Joe Bowers came to this State in 1849 from Pike county, Missouri, to make a stake in the mines, intending to return and marry the girl of his choice, Sally Black by name. He worked early and late with pick, shovel and long-tom and at last accumulated a snug little pile and had about made up his mind to return to "the States." But one day he got a letter from his brother Ike, which bore the dreadful tidings that during his absence his sweetheart had gone back on him and married a red-head'd butcher. Now this was bad enough, but the epistle further stated that "Sally had a baby and the baby had red hair." This broke Joe Bowers all up and he went all to pieces and became a wanderer on the face of the earth. Now, after all these years he turns up in Glen Ellen and in an evil hour writes poetry for this paper and is in trouble again. However, as Joe is living in cog in that burg there is an even chance of his escaping the vengeance of its people and resuming his life's wanderings. Bon voyage, Joe.

A Successful Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the Native Daughters at Union Hall on Friday evening of last week was a very pleasant affair. The hall was handsomely decorated with evergreens, flags, streamers, flowers and Chinese lanterns. By eight o'clock the hall was comfortably filled with ladies and gentlemen who listened to the programme with marked attention. Some of the best local talent in the valley took part and all acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner. Those who kindly assisted were Mrs. Ada Pauli, Mr. Alf. McLaughlin, Miss G. Shaw, Miss Ella McIntyre, Miss Annie Raschen, Miss Grace Johnson, Miss M. Ryan, Miss M. Murey, Miss Walker, Miss E. Powell, Mr. Sloper and Misses Moore and Tobin. After the literary exercises were over dancing was indulged in until 11 o'clock when iced lemonade and cake were served after which dancing was continued and kept up until 2 p. m., when the floor manager, Miss A. Ehrlich, called a medley, which ended the evening's entertainment.

A Crazy Chinaman.

Deputy Sheriff Breitenbach of Santa Rosa passed through town Wednesday having in charge a crazy Chinaman, en route to the Napa Asylum. This is the same Chinese who attempted suicide by hanging in the Santa Rosa Jail where he was confined on a charge of petty larceny. He had been brought down from Windsor last Monday and put in one of the cells of the jail. Shortly after he was discovered by Deputy Breitenbach hanging to one of the cross bars of the door. The officer immediately cut him down. He was nearly dead. Had he been suspended a few seconds longer there would have been one Chinaman less. All same.

Fire at Glen Ellen.

A fire at Glen Ellen yesterday morning destroyed a barn and sixty tons of hay, the property of George E. Beatty, the butcher. The origin of the fire is unknown. The property was partly insured.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the appearance of Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the Cal. Fig Syrup Company.

HUN'S CANYON TRAGEDY.

Thos. Wilson Pleads Guilty of Murder in the Second Degree.

The case of the People vs. Thos. Wilson came up for trial in the Superior Court at Santa Rosa last Thursday morning. The defendant was represented by T. J. Geary and District Attorney Burnett appeared for the People. The prisoner occupied a seat by his counsel. He looked pale and careworn from his long confinement and after his plea had been entered a great load appeared to have been lifted off his mind. He will undoubtedly be sent to the State Prison for the term of his natural life. The crime he committed was a most deliberate and cold-blooded murder, and must have been the act of an insane man, as there appeared to be no motive for the act. There was no eyewitness to the tragedy and the particulars of the killing was furnished by Wilson himself. He stated that Webber, his victim, and himself had been drinking large quantities of new wine. That they got into a dispute and in a scuffle that followed an open pocket knife which he held in his hand came in contact with Webber's throat and it was out almost from ear to ear. The bleeding man fell to the earth and beseeched Wilson to put him out of his misery. The murderer thereupon repaired to the cabin of another rancher, who happened to be absent, and procuring a shot gun returned to his victim and deliberately placing it in his mouth pulled the trigger and blew his brains out. Wilson then gave himself up and after narrating the above circumstances stated that he supposed he would be hanged. The prisoner is well known to the people of this valley. He was a hard-working man, remarkably honest in all his dealings, and a peaceable and law-abiding citizen when sober. When under the influence of liquor it is said his temper was violent and ungovernable.

Discovery of Fire Brick Clay and Fire Sandstone.

L. W. Mayer, whose farm is located on Mt. Cliff near the headwaters of Hooker Branch creek five or six miles from town, has unearthed an immense deposit of fire sandstone and fire brick clay. These articles are used in the manufacture of pottery, and heretofore have been imported from Germany. Samples were taken to San Francisco this week and upon being tested by pottery makers were pronounced No. 1 genuine articles. The deposit of fire sandstone lies only a short distance from the ledge of fire brick clay and both can be worked with great profit. Mr. Mayer has already commenced to form a joint stock company to work his valuable find and also to engage in the manufacture of pottery in Sonoma.

Small Business.

There are one or two people in this town who, for the most part, depend upon its residents for a living, that are doing all in their power to injure Sonoma by toadying to those who are attempting to kill the old town. These parties should be made to desist or be severely sat down upon. The people of Sonoma have it in their power to conquer their enemies, but in order to do so they must be treated as enemies. If this is not done they will discover their error when it is too late. In so far as the INDEX-TRIBUNE is concerned it is for Sonoma first, last and all the time as against any Boontown rival.

A Mean Thief.

A card appears in another column warning a certain party in this place to desist from levying tribute on R. D. Moore's wood pile when honest people are supposed to be in bed and asleep. This party is well known. He is the identical person who on several occasions raided the poor editor's woodpile a year or two ago and made him wonder where that wood was going to anyhow. This party needs watching. He has also a penchant for hen-roosts as well as wood piles and would not hesitate to get away with a red hot stove should the wood piles around town happen to give out.

City Rate of Taxation.

The City Trustees met last Tuesday in special session and fixed the rate of city taxes for the present fiscal year at 50 cents on the $100 of valuation. This rate will bring into the city treasury the sum of $1850. Add to this $513 in the treasury and an increase of $456 on saloon licenses and we have a total of $2819 on which to run the affairs of the city for the next twelve months not counting licenses and street poll taxes.

Congregational Church.

The Pastor will give a second discourse in the morning on "The Power of Prayer," and in the evening his subject will be, "What is it That Crouches at Thy Door." "Come Thou with us and we will do these good for the Lord hath spoken good concerning Israel."

The Union is a first-class hotel. *

Personal and Social.

L. Modini visited San Francisco last Tuesday.

M. G. West, the safe expert, was in town yesterday.

Miss Annie Raschen is up from San Francisco visiting friends.

Hon. J. K. Luttrell of South Los Guillos visited Santa Rosa Tuesday.

Mr. Albert Whitfield was the guest of M. A. Flynn several days this week.

Mr. J. Chauvet and Robt. P. Hill of Glen Ellen visited the metropolis this week.

Mrs. C. Englebert went to the city yesterday to spend several days with friends.

Rev. Father Sullivan after a short visit in San Francisco returned home Tuesday evening.

Jas. Martin, who celebrated Admission Day in San Jose, returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. F. Cleve visited Santa Rosa Tuesday on business connected with the estate of the late F. Duhring Sr.

Mrs. F. Duhring and her daughter Miss Agnes, and Fred Duhring, Jr. visited the county seat Tuesday.

Ben Pohley returned home Tuesday evening after a week's absence on a visit to Santa Cruz and San Francisco.

Mrs. F. McG. Martin, Superintendent of Public Schools, has been visiting the schools of this valley the past week.

Mrs. Mary Lee, after an absence of several months in W. T., is on a visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. has. McHarvey.

Mrs. Wm. Brown and Miss Clara F. Prunty have been in Monterey this week attending the Methodist Conference Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weems and Mrs. Whitney returned to Sonoma Tuesday after an absence of several weeks in Marin county.

Mrs. Robin, accompanied by her daughter Miss Cassarine, visited friends and relatives in San Francisco several days this week.

The engagement is announced of Miss Annie Church to Mr. Fred. Spaulding a well known and wealthy young man of San Francisco.

W. H. Dobyns, the local editor of the Santa Rosa Republican, one of our very best exchanges, dropped into our sanctum yesterday morning.

Miss Dora Meyers and Miss Lenzie Berry, daughter of ex-Congressman Berry, were the guests of Miss Dora Howe several days this week.

Mrs. M. Spencer and her son, Mr. Charles Spencer, returned to their home at Willow Ranch last Tuesday evening from a visit to the Bay City.

Geo. Hines, late of the Sonoma Valley Band, has cast his lot, and for the next five years will be in the service of Uncle Sam, having enlisted at Santa Cruz last week.

Fred. Lyons, son of James A. Lyons, a prominent lumber merchant of Coquille City, Or., is the guest of Dr. W. L. Vance. Young Lyons comes to Sonoma to attend our public school and during his stay will reside with Dr. Vance, who is an old friend of the family.

Glen Ellen Gossip.

Geo. Beatty has purchased some fine beef cattle from Wm. Hill.

We learn that Wm. Cowan, an old resident, is quite ill. We sincerely hope that he will soon recover.

Admission Day was celebrated in this place by the hoisting of flags and the closing of the business places.

Quite a number of residents left here on last Sunday's train to celebrate Admission Day in other places.

Mr. Coops has been making some improvements on his building in the way of a new roof and an addition to his dwelling.

The new flag of the Native Sons at this place was unfurled for the first time on the breezes on Admission Day. The distance from the ground to the top of the staff is sixty feet.

A reward has been offered for the capture of Joe Bowers, who treated our citizens in such a shameful manner in the last issue of the INDEX-TRIBUNE.

OLD TIMER.

Glen Ellen, Sept. 10, 1889.

Burglars Arrested.

Deputy Sheriff Groshong arrived in Santa Rosa Thursday night from Sacramento with two men who entered the house of Isaac Parsons, in that city, during Fair week, and stole $25 in cash, a gold watch and chain, $11,000 in notes, forty-four shares Santa Rosa National Bank stock, fifty-five shares Santa Rosa Savings Bank stock, and thirty-five shares Santa Rosa Bank stock.

If you could see your own scalp through an ordinary magnifying glass, you would be amazed at the amount of dust, dandruff, and dead skin thereon accumulated. The best and most popular preparation for cleansing the scalp is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Fresh fruits and vegetables at A. Haraszy & Co.'s, north side of the Plaza.

Geo. Plying of Santa Rosa has sold his ranch and will soon fly to Washington Territory.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1889.

IN CHINA RUSIA.

His Majesty has stood still under the pressure of the bribery and corruption of the officials, the ignorance of the peasants, the interference with all private liberty, the constant war under Peter the Great, while it is never known by whom they were denounced, or what are the crimes imputed to them. The petty interference in common life are almost incredible; no man can even alter the front of his house in St. Petersburg without special permission from the czar.

Foreign newspapers are replete with broad speculations of printing ink over any passage of the czar, and to take orders from him alone, so that there can be no concert between them, and nothing like what we call a cabinet. In practice, however, this cannot possibly be carried out, and the majority of the affairs of the enormous empire must necessarily be settled without the assistance of a cabinet, and by a number of irresponsible petty officials with enormous power of doing evil.

The peasants still conceive that the czar can do no wrong, and believe in him as in a god; this forms, indeed, one of the chief points in their religion, which consists in prostration, genuflections, and kneeling during a service conducted in old Slavonic, which is a dead language both to priests and people, in the keeping of fasts and festivals during 165 days in the year, and in a fetich worship of the holy icons (or images) as degrading as any to be found in Central Africa. There is an utter divorce among the peasants between the ideas of morality and religion. In the upper class, as described by Count Tolstoy, it is the fashion to profess complete unbelief in everything, and Stepanik glories in the nihilism of the middle classes as including every subject: "We are more advanced than other nations, as we have disposed of religion, the next world, and all such rubbish." The small remains of free institutions still left in the local boards of the country have been lately attacked by the czar, everything, in fact, instead of advancing, is retrograding in measures for self government and liberty of any kind. - F. P. Verney in Nineteenth Century.

The Youngster's Servant. The spectacle of a fine, shapely, well-looking young woman walking Fifth Avenue behind an over-dressed child of perhaps twelve years of age and carrying the youngster's school books, has been observed by social students on several occasions lately. It seems to be the proper thing with children of the smart set, but it is not an altogether cheerful and encouraging sign of the times. These young women are not governesses, unless they come under the English designation of nursery governesses, for the children go to school, and presumably are taught something when they get there; nor are the young women maid servants, and they are very rarely, it would appear, of foreign extraction. In a country like England, where poor girls of good family consent to accept positions which, if not menial, are given mental suggestiveness, there is the inherent British respect for rank and money to condemn what seems to be rather unworthy service. But in this glorious republic of independence and equality the sight is not a pleasant one. Times must be hard when American girls sell their birthright and self respect for a morsel of pottage. - New York Star.

Stolen by Mice. In Mr. Davie's "Children in Canada" he told a very good bear and mouse story, which is better than the average invention in that line. A settler had gone into "the bush" and worked one season before bringing his family to their new home. Having built his house and cleared some land, he thought of returning for his wife and children. He had, with other money, $150 in silver. This, on account of his weight, he determined not to take with him, but to hide it in the hollow of a tree. He put it in a stocking and hung it up in a hollow trunk. When the settler and his family came home the next summer, they found that an old bear had made the house his abode during the winter, and on going to the tree for his money, the man was not a little disappointed to find it gone. His mind wandered round his money, and he haunted the tree. At last he determined to cut it down. At the base he hoped to find it. He saw portions of the paper and the stocking cut up fine, forming, together with grass and leaves, a wood mouse's nest. Beneath the nest was the $150 in the midst of mold and rotten wood.

Building and Loan Associations. The vast majority of city dwellers rent their houses and never have a permanent home. This constitutes a sort of respectable vagabondage including our respectable people of the middle classes. The need of this sort of life is of late coming under discussion. That it involves waste and loss, and is seriously detrimental to family character, is beyond question. Building and loan associations have grown into prominence as a remedy, and the subject should be considerably studied by all men of moderate means. Mrs. Sanbury, of the Social Science association, estimates the number of such associations at present at nearly 5,000, with an investment of $500,000,000, while the savings during the forty years have been over $500,000,000. There are 600 associations in Ohio, 450 in Illinois, 33 in Michigan, and other states in proportion. - St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

For Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery, and also everything kept in a general merchandise store go to B. Schocken's, north side Plaza, Sonoma.

Epoch. The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is "transcribed" in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been obtained is gratefully blessed. It is the first so much to be heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidney, Liver or Stomach, or long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at E. Wagner's drug store.

His Business Booming. Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade as E. Wagner's drug store, as his giving away to his customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. His trade is easily estimated in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

The Occidental Hotel is fast becoming a popular resort.

When you want a good shave or hair cut, go to Chas. Dalpogetto of the City Barber Shop.

If you want the local news take the INDEX-TRIBUNE.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HE MARCHED WITH SHERMAN TO THE SEA.

Trudged all the way on foot, over mountain and through morass, carrying knapsack and gun, slept on brush heap to keep out of the mud, caught cold, from the effects of which his friends thought he would never recover. He was determined to try it. A few bottles cured him. Always too independent to ask his country for a pension, he now says he would never have left his country, he saved himself! Consumption is lung-scorch, for scrofula. In all cases of this kind, "Discovery" is an unequalled remedy. It cleanses the system of all blood-taints from whatever cause arising, and cures all Skin and Scaly Diseases, Salt-rheum, Tetters, Eczema, and kindred ailments. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be refunded. Sold by druggists.
